If you are a family in receipt of any benefits, you could be entitled to free school meals

Please apply via https://essex-self.achieveservice.com/service/Free School Meals application

Also apply even if your child usually brings a packed lunch to school or doesn't eat orally. If free school meals are awarded, this attracts extra money into school called Pupil Premium.

For those children in KS1 (Reception to year 2) they receive Universal Free School Meals due to their age. However if you are a family in receipt of any benefits you may still be entitled to Pupil Premium - please ask at the school office for a form.

SPLASH

Future SPLASH events:

Quiz Night 24 Jan 7pm

Pamper Evening 5 March 6pm- 9pm

<https://www.campjojo.org/>

Camp Jojo gives 6-7 families with children with complex needs at a time, the opportunity to camp for 3 days under canvas on a specially adapted campsite on Ivy Farm, East Mersea with whatever accessible equipment they require.

We provide trained volunteers committed to supporting each family to ensure the experience remains a holiday rather than an endurance event.

At Camp Jojo we pride ourselves on ensuring all activities are accessible to every family member: bushcraft activities, time round the fire and lots of outdoor fun, foraging, beach time, tomahawk throwing, feeding farm animals, campfires, tai chi, fire lighting, music, massage and much more.

Below is information on Rascal's soft play centre in Clacton as they will be running a weekly after school session for children with additional needs. It starts on the 4th November.
