Happy Friday Good News-

Pier 3—A student has won a competition with the Lions Club Poster Competition with the theme Dare to Dream. His entry has now been entered into a national competition. He is so happy about winning, as are we! Halloween tuff trays have been thoroughly enjoyed by all Pier 1—PE on Monday one pupil followed instructions brilliantly. Two pupils have new class chairs which have made such a difference. Another pupil moved her head towards light source in Autumn story.

Pier 4—all students went on the trampoline and loved it. Great interaction from one student with previous class staff member.

Pier 5—Another student choosing friends on eyegaze computer

Sunshine 8-new activities at the Leisure Centre enjoyed by all-table tennis and basket ball.

Beach 5—Public bus to Morrisons and shopping was great—all students very patient waiting at the bus stop

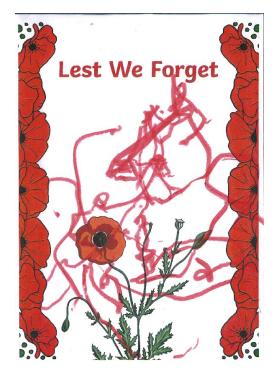

Beach 2—one pupil in pants all week—using the toilet—Yay!!

Sunshine 4—Firework safety week—everyone loved making chocolate sparklers (yummy!)

PE—Ten Pin Bowling Panathlon Event on 20th October with Beach 5 and Sunshine 8—We won the competition!

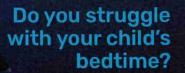

We were delighted to hear about a Halloween Party for one of our students not attending school. This student managed a 2 hour party and loved lots of decorating and Halloween related activities.

Pier 2— a wonderful review for one student and we all love his poppy picture for Remembrance Day which he completed independently.
